

ADAMA Rings Bell at SZSE to Celebrate its Unified Name, Achieving Final Combination Milestone

TEL AVIV, ISRAEL, and BEIJING, CHINA, January 9, 2019 – Leading global crop protection company, ADAMA Ltd. (the “Company”) (SZSE 000553), today announced that the Company’s shares will begin trading under the name “ADAMA” on the Shenzhen Stock Exchange (“SZSE”) at market open tomorrow, January 10, 2019.

Tomorrow, in honor of the occasion, ADAMA’s President and CEO, Chen Lichtenstein, will be joined by senior Company executives as well as dignitaries of the SZSE and representatives of the Municipal Party Committee of Jingzhou City where Sanonda was founded, to strike the ceremonial bell at the SZSE, memorializing this momentous moment in ADAMA’s journey in the global capital markets.

This follows the shareholders’ approval of the change of the Company’s name from Hubei Sanonda Co., Ltd. to ADAMA Ltd. on December 26, 2018, which was subsequently formally reflected in the Company’s business license by the Hubei Administration for Industry and Commerce on December 28, 2018.

The company’s A-share and B-share stock codes (tickers) will remain the same.
