

ADAMA France is a leading manufacturer and distributor of plant protection solutions. We are the world's number one in off-patent solutions with a turnover of more than 4.8 billion USD. Our French subsidiary, n°5 on the market, is in strong development. To reach our ambitious goals, we are recruiting talented and passionate people.

European Regulatory Affairs Project Manager

Main responsibilities :

- EU-wide management of the preparation, submission and follow-up of registrations of plant protection products
- Provide regulatory expertise for new product development and product maintenance to ensure that relevant regulatory requirements are understood and followed by other relevant departments
- Develop and maintain profound knowledge of all relevant regulatory requirements in the EU
- Contribute to the portfolio development (GAP determination, preliminary risk assessment, regulatory strategy...) in close collaboration with the appropriate internal departments
- Provide regulatory expertise and foresight to the business. Keep regulatory and business partners informed on regulatory changes and emerging issues which require proactive management
- Liaise with competent authorities
- Be able to review and concisely summarize scientific data
- Participation in cross-functional internal projects
- Participation in inter-professional working groups (e.g. Phyteis), conferences.
- Participation in meetings with authorities (Anses, DGAL), technical institutes, etc.

Knowledges, Skills & Experiences :

- A proven background in Regulatory Affairs, preferably involving pesticides and/or biopesticides.
- Masters' in Chemistry or similar
- Ability to perform administrative work independently in an organized way
- Hand on practical expertise in Registration Activities.
- Demonstrated strengths in communication, self-organization and problem solving
- Proficient in French and English, spoken and written.

Location of this job : Suresnes, France (92). Up to 2 days of remote working per week.
Travel to European countries for meetings and trials visits

If you are interested by this offer, please send us your resume to this email : recrutement@adama.com

Adama is certified
Happy AtWork