

DIVERGE™ SILK & DIVERGE™ EC

The Diverge family of herbicides from ADAMA offer growers high-quality formulations that provide equivalent weed control to other propanil products on the market. With two options, growers can choose the formulation that best fits their needs.

ADAMA is committed to rice growers and the rice industry, and continues to invest in key AIs that boost our rice portfolio of solutions.

We bring you the options you need, that are manufactured here in the US, that let you farm your way. You can trust in our formulations' stability & handling. You won't lose time and increase your expenses due to clogged nozzles or downtime.
